

Unit 1 Assessment

Instructions: For each item, choose the most appropriate answer.

1. The first professional association for health information managers was established in:
2. The hospital standardization program was started by the American College of Surgeons in:
3. The formal approval process for academic programs in health information management is called:
4. The formal process for conferring a health information management credential is called:
5. Which of the following are elected to their positions by AHIMA members?
6. Which of the following functions as the legislative body of AHIMA?
7. Which of the following make up a virtual network of AHIMA members?
8. Which of the following is an arm of AHIMA that promotes education and research in health information management?

9. Which of the following best describes the mission of the AHIMA?

10. Which of the following is true about the AHIMA?